

Pray for mission partners all week.

No Christian worker can “go it alone.” When our mission partners follow God’s call to serve in NZ or overseas, they need to know that there is a team of people constantly holding them up in prayer. It takes discipline and commitment to pray for people who live in a place we know little about, who work in a language we don’t speak, who may eat breakfast while we’re going to bed, and who may not be back for some years. But they don’t stop being our brothers and sisters while they’re away. Thank you for praying - your prayers count.

Sunday - Spiritual life

Time to read and pray. Spiritual growth. Encouragement. Fellowship. For integrity, reliability, consistency

Monday - Personal life

Good friendships for single mission partners. Relationships between husband and wife. Children growing up as Third Culture Kids (TCKs). Maintaining contact with children, parents and family back in NZ. Friendships with locals. Health and strength. Physical and spiritual protection. To maintain margin with weekly rest and recreation as well as regular holidays.

Tuesday - Communication

Progress in language study, encouraging language helpers. Adaptation to culture, customs and people. Clarity, creativity and relevance in preaching and teaching.

Wednesday - Relationships

Harmonious relationships within their multi-cultural teams, with local church leaders and believers and in the communities in which they serve. Good links with sending churches and prayer supporters.

Thursday - Ministry

To lead with grace, minister holistically, seek the Kingdom of God. For boldness. For godly, sensitive, faith-building, Spirit-led ministry. Hungry hearts and the opening of spiritually blind eyes. For the establishing of Christ’s church.

Friday - Mentoring

For patience and empathy. Encouraging new believers. Equipping and mentoring those with leadership gifts. For mission partners to grow and be challenged by their own mentors.

Saturday - The country

For those in authority. The political situation. Religious freedom. For peace in war torn areas. For justice.

We constantly pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of His calling and that by His power He may fulfil every good purpose of yours and every act prompted by your faith. (2 Thessalonians 1:11)
